

- Participation in The Lounge requires permission from a parent or legal guardian for anyone under the age of 18.
- By allowing participation, the parent or guardian acknowledges that their teen may participate in group activities, social programs, discussions, workshops, and events organized by The Lounge.
- Parents/guardians agree to provide accurate emergency contact information and notify staff of any medical or behavioral concerns relevant to the teen's safety.
- Parents/guardians understand that The Lounge is a community youth environment designed to promote positive development, social engagement, and mentorship.

Liability Waiver

- Participation in activities at The Lounge is voluntary.
- While reasonable precautions are taken to maintain a safe environment, participation may involve normal risks associated with group activities and youth programming.
- By participating, the participant and/or parent/guardian agrees that The Lounge, its staff, volunteers, and partners will not be held liable for injuries, accidents, or losses that may occur during participation, except in cases of gross negligence.
- Participants and parents/guardians agree to follow all facility rules and staff instructions designed to promote safety.
